A New Face In Town “Chat Mobility”

Today signs started going up with the name Chat Mobility from Shenandoah to Red Oak, from Glenwood to Osceola. Over twenty-four locations will now carry the name Chat Mobility throughout Iowa. The official launch of Chat Mobility service will begin on April 13, 2009. Customers will be able to purchase state of the art cell phones with data services like picture messaging, ringtones, web browsing and more. Chat mobility will offer 99 cent data smartphones as part of their introductory offer with free activation. “We are excited about bringing these data services to customers in rural markets.” Stated Alan DeBolt, Marketing Manager for Chat Mobility. “Our concept is to make cell phone service affordable to everyone whether it is a basic phone for security or a smartphone for a business tool. Every rate plan with Chat Mobility is nationwide and includes unlimited incoming minutes, unlimited nights and weekends and unlimited mobile-to-mobile.” For more information visit www.chatmobility.com
